

USAID | HAITI
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Biographies of Justice Sector Actors
Justice Reform Dinner
Tuesday October 7, 2008

Me. Josue Pierre-Louis, Director General of the Ministry of Justice. A graduate of France's School of Magistrates, he was first appointed as a Deputy Prosecutor in Petit Goave, and to the same post in Port-au-Prince. Thereafter, he was appointed Port-au-Prince Chief Prosecutor for Port-au-Prince and Director of the School of Magistrates. Before his appointment as Director General of the Ministry of Justice, he was promoted to the Court of Appeal in Port-au-Prince as a Judge.

Me. Gervais Charles, President of the Port-au-Prince Bar Association. Me. Charles is a prominent lawyer and former Haitian Ambassador to Germany. He is currently Vice-President of the Haitian Federation of Bar Associations, and was recently selected by his peers to be a member of the new Judicial Council. (His attendance is tentative. In that occurrence, Rene Magloire, immediate past Minister of Justice will attend in place of Me. Charles.

Professor Henri Dorleans, Human Rights Specialist. Me. Dorleans is a former member of the Haitian Diplomatic Corps and former Minister of Justice (2005-2006). He is a professor of law at the State University of Haiti National Law School since 1994 and has worked as consultant for international organizations in several developing countries.

Lionel Bourgouin, Director of the Magistrates School. Me. Bourgouin graduated from France's School of Magistrates, and holds a Master's degree in Criminal Policy Law from the Sorbonne, Paris. He has spent most of his career as a Prosecutor in Port-au-Prince and Jacmel.